

Effortless English

A Kiss

huge: adj. very very big	Carlos buys a new car. It's a very expensive car. It's a <sup>rất lớn</sup> huge , blue, fast car. While driving down the street, Carlos sees a girl on a bicycle. She has long blond hair and is beautiful.
What's up: a greeting, "hello"	He yells <sup>hét</sup> to her, <sup>chào em</sup> "What's up?"
ignores: v. doesn't listen to	She <sup>lờ</sup> ignores him.
How's it going: a greeting, "How are you?"	He yells, <sup>em khỏe không</sup> "How's it going?"
keeps: v. continues	She <sup>tiếp tục</sup> keeps going and ignores him.
That's it: idiom. "That is all", there is no more, that is everything	He yells, "Hey, why won't you talk to me? I want to go to dinner with you. I'll take you to an expensive restaurant."
Past Tense Verb Forms	The girl <sup>dừng lại</sup> turns, gets off the bike, and looks at him. She says, "I don't <sup>bất ngờ</sup> want to go to dinner. But if you give me your car, I will give you a surprise."
buys: bought	Carlos says, "OK!" He <sup>nhảy</sup> jumps out of the car. He gives her the keys and says, "Here are the keys."
is: was	The beautiful blond takes the keys and then kisses Carlos on the <sup>má</sup> cheek. Then she jumps into the car and drives away.
driving: was driving	Carlos stands on the sidewalk. Now he has no car and no girl. He says, <sup>vừa hè</sup> "That's it, just a kiss on the cheek?"
drive: drove	<sup>đó là tất cả</sup>
sees: saw	He gets on her bike and rides home.
has: had
yells: yelled
ignores: ignored
keeps: kept
turns: turned looks: looked
says: said
jumps: jumped
gives: gave takes: took kisses: kissed
drives: drove stands: stood
gets on: got on rides: rode	